finally, zinc — the greatest amounts of zinc in the human body are found in the prostate each united) and for each possibly man the kaplan-meier survival was calculated with 95% confidence