in fact, we had one when we were a child and she was nothing more than loveable because expiration dates are somewhat arbitrary, many people dispose of drugs that are still effective i never “primed” my body in advance of beginning the methylated vitamins and am wondering where to go from here